

I am against deregulation of ownership of media companies. I sincerely believe that deregulating ownership will further lead our citizens away from diversity of voices that our democratic society needs. I also believe that deregulation could lead to a loss of local community and potentially endanger the citizens of individual communities in times of emergency due to a lack of availability of true, current broadcasting of pertinent information. I sincerely appreciate your attention to my concerns.